

Florida flood disclosure

Florida Statutes § 689.302. Complete and deliver this disclosure to the buyer at or before execution of the sales contract. The disclosure wording below follows the statute; this is a NavStreet printable layout.

Property address: _____

Seller(s): _____

Flood Insurance: Homeowners' insurance policies do not include coverage for damage resulting from floods. Buyer is encouraged to discuss the need to purchase separate flood insurance coverage with Buyer's insurance agent.

Check one box for each statement:

1. Seller has ☐ / has no ☐ knowledge of any flooding that has damaged the property during Seller's ownership of the property.
2. Seller has ☐ / has not ☐ filed a claim with an insurance provider relating to flood damage on the property, including, but not limited to, a claim with the National Flood Insurance Program.
3. Seller has ☐ / has not ☐ received assistance for flood damage to the property, including, but not limited to, assistance from the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

For purposes of this disclosure, "flooding" means a general or temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of the property caused by: (a) overflow of inland or tidal waters; (b) unusual and rapid accumulation of runoff or surface waters from an established water source, such as a river, stream, or drainage ditch; or (c) sustained periods of standing water resulting from rainfall.
